

雅思强化口语精讲班第 3 讲讲义

Hometown

Exercise 3: Hometown

Interviewer: Where do you come from?

Candidate: My hometown is a coastal city, which is located in Shandong province.

Interviewer: Can you talk about your hometown?

Candidate: It is famous for its long history, and there are numerous ancient buildings. The population is small, and it is rather quiet and peaceful.

Interviewer: What do you like best about your hometown?

Candidate: I believe the pace of life is what I like most. We don't have to struggle hard to make a living. We enjoy the leisure time and there is no pressure for the local people.

Interviewer: Do you live in a city or a village?

Candidate: I live in a modern city, which is in the south of China.

Interviewer: What do you think about your city?

Candidate: I'm not satisfied with the environment of my city, and the streets are too narrow, which makes the traffic busy.

Interviewer: How long have you been living in the city?

Candidate: My family moved to the city about 10 years ago, and I grow up here.

Interviewer: Do you think that the city is suitable for young people to live in?

Candidate: I think so. Young people like me can go to pubs at night or sing karaoke with friends. Besides, they can enjoy something new from time to time.

第一部分深入问题

Sports

Exercise 4: Sports

Interviewer: What sports do you often do?

Candidate: I do aerobics, yoga or learn dancing. Sometimes, I go jogging on the treadmill at home.

Interviewer: What is your favorite sport?

Candidate: I am crazy about X-games like rock climbing, and I am a member of a local club. It's exciting.

Interviewer: Do you think students at school should do sports?

Candidate: Yes. Children may have good health, and it relieves their pressure in study, but first of all, they must learn how to protect themselves in sports.

Interviewer: What are the benefits of doing sports?

Candidate: People will get a strong body if they do sports regularly, and they feel relaxed and refreshed. Besides, people are going to make friends with people who share the same interest.

Interviewer: Do you think sports helps people to relax?

Candidate: I guess so. People release their pressure when doing sports. They can communicate with others in sports.

Music

Exercise 5: Music

What music do you like?

What music do Chinese people like?

From when on do schools begin to have music lessons?

Should there be music lessons in schools?

Do many Chinese children learn to play a musical instrument?

What instrument have you learned?

What instrument do you want to learn in the future?

What are the benefits of learning a musical instrument?

参考答案

Interviewer: What music do you like?

Candidate: I like listening to light music. I have a habit of listening to music while doing my assignment. And it also helps me to have a sweet dream at night.

Interviewer: What music do Chinese people like?

Candidate: Pop songs, traditional and classic music is popular. Young people listen to hip-hop, and old people listen to traditional operas like Beijing operas.

Interviewer: From when on do schools begin to have music lessons?

Candidate: We start to have music lessons as soon as we go to primary school. Children learn to sing songs.

Interviewer: Should there be music lessons in schools?

Candidate: I believe so. First of all, music learning will bring something fresh to academic study, which can make up for the lack of delight on campus. Secondly, music courses will not only tell the students how to sing or play instruments but also how to appreciate music.

Interviewer: Do many Chinese children learn to play a musical instrument?

Candidate: Yes, it's popular. They learn it before they go to school, and sometimes they stop because of busy school life.

Interviewer: What instrument have you learned?

Candidate: I can play the flute. It's a traditional instrument in China. I play it when I feel lonely or stressful.

Interviewer: What instrument do you want to learn in the future?

Candidate: If possible, I'd like to learn pipa. It's also an old instrument in China.

Interviewer: What are the benefits of learning a musical instrument?

Candidate: It's a way of relaxation for children. Besides, girls are elegant when they can play the piano or violin.