

雅思强化口语精讲班第 4 讲讲义

Film

Exercise 6: Film

Examiner: What kind of films do you like?

Candidate: I like foreign films, especially the Hollywood films.

Examiner: Do you often go to cinemas to watch a film?

Candidate: No, I rarely go to cinema because tickets are expensive nowadays. I borrow or buy VCD and watch the film at home.

What's the difference between watching films in the cinema and at home?

Well, the sound effect is better in the cinema, and the screen is larger, but the audience can't comment on the content freely. If we stay at home, we can talk about the plot any time.

Examiner: What kind of films do you like best?

Candidate: I like horror films. They are exciting and thrilling. I like the feeling of watching this kind of film.

Examiner: Do you watch it by yourself or with your family?

Candidate: It depends. But most of time I watch by myself because they don't like it. They think it's too scary.

Shopping

Exercise 6: Shopping

Interviewer: Do you like shopping?

Candidate: Not really. I believe it is a waste of time, and I just go shopping when I need to buy some daily necessities.

Interviewer: Who do you go shopping with?

Candidate: I go shopping with my friends. I ask them for advice.

Interviewer: How often do you go shopping?

Candidate: I go shopping every two weeks. I take the bus to the supermarket nearby.

Interviewer: What do you like to buy?

Candidate: I buy sportswear, shoes or snacks like yogurt or sunflower seeds. They are my favorite.

Interviewer: Where do you like to go shopping?

Candidate: There is a supermarket called Peace Plaza near my home and I can walk there.

Interviewer: Who does most shopping in your family?

Candidate: My mother does most shopping, and she buys food, drinks, shampoo nearly every week.

Interviewer: What department stores are there?

Candidate: There is a large shopping mall. People can buy whatever they want.

Reading

Exercise 7: Reading

Interviewer: Do you like reading?

Candidate: Well, yes. I like reading very much.

Interviewer: Why do you like reading?

Candidate: I like reading because I can get a lot of new information from books. I will know what life is like.

Interviewer: What kind of books do you read?

Candidate: I like novels because they are entertaining.

Interviewer: And what's your favorite book?

Candidate: My favorite book is a love story. It's called the Love of Duke.

Interviewer: Where do you read books?

Candidate: Most of time, I read at home. Sometimes I read in the municipal library.

Interviewer: How do you get the books?

Candidate: Sometimes I borrow books from libraries and sometimes I download from the Internet and I read on the computer.

Interviewer: How many books can you read every day?

Candidate: Well, I can read about two or three books everyday. If the book is thick, I can only read a few chapters.

Interviewer: Do you like to discuss the contents with others when you read books?

Candidate: Yes, I like sharing the essence of a book with my friends. We can discuss the opinions of the author and see whether it's the reality or not. I think that's inspiring and instructive.

TV program

Exercise 8: TV program

Interviewer: Do you like watching TV?

Candidate: Well, yes. I watch TV nearly every day.

Interviewer: Why do you like watching TV?

Candidate: You know, I'm busy with my work the whole day, and after I go home, I want to relax, and watching TV is a kind of relaxation.

Interviewer: What's your favorite program?

Candidate: I like to watch news because I can know what is going on around me.

Interviewer: Do other people in your family like watching TV?

Candidate: No, they don't like it because they think it's a waste of time. For example, if you watch TV series, which has a strong appeal to the audience, you will want to know what's going to happen next.